1. Presentation of the City of Vienne

www.vienne.fr

<https://www.facebook.com/vienne38200/>

The City of Vienne is a territorial collectivity (French administrative organization) whose main mission is to meet the needs of the local population. It practices general skills to manage any communal interest matters and other skills in various fields such as education, youth and international action.

International mobility of youngsters has always been a priority for the City of Vienne. It is a factor conducive to cultural awareness, professional integration and social diversity. The representatives always had a special attention towards youth and international concerns and in this sense introduced actions in these fields.

2. Presentation of the missions proposed to the volunteers

The missions proposed by the municipal departments are linked to the main project of international mobility carried by the City of Vienne and testify the interest of these services to welcome a volunteer from partner cities.

3. Accommodation of the volunteers

The youngsters will be welcomed at an apartment building (studio) for youngsters within one of the 3 residences called « Habitat Jeunes »
(See the accommodation presentation sheet)
